Constantinople, November 17.

THE new Sultan has changed the greatest Part of the Officers who make up the Number of his Court: The Kizlar Aga, or Chief of the Black Eunuchs, and his Secretary the Jazigi Efendi, have both been deposed, and the former exiled to Rhodes. The Selichtar, or Sword-Bearer, the Bostangi Baschi, and Buuk Imrehor, or Great Master of the Horse, have also had their Employments taken from them, and the latter has been succeeded by the Vizir's Son in Law; and the Vizir himself, who is generally esteemed, seems to be in the Grand Signor's Favour. The Captain Pascha has also been exiled; and his Predecessor, Suliman Pascha, is sent for to be reinstated in that Post. Other Changes are expected of Course. The Sultan has distributed very largely to the Janizaries, who have received double the Sum given on the late Sultan's Accession, each capable of Service having received 24 Dollars, and those who are not in a Condition to act, 14 Dollars; which Gratuity amounts to two Millions and a half of Dollars: A large Sum has also been distributed amongst the other different Orders of Soldiery, the Whole amounting to about 7000 Purfes. The Ministers this Court send to the three Frontier Courts, on the Grand Signor's Accession, are named; the Cheaia of the Vizir's Cheaia, goes to Vienna; the Chiause Katibi, or he who attends on Foreign Ministers at their Audience, for Russia; and the Salem Agasi, or Master of the Ceremonies of the Vizir's Court, for Poland. M. Foscarei, the new Venetian Ambassador, has had his publick Audience of the Grand Signor; and his Predecessor, M. Dona, proposes embarking in two Days for Venice. The Foreign Ministers have commenced their publick Audiences of the Vizir, to compliment him on the Accession of the new Sultan, and to receive the Letters of Notification for their respective Courts.

Leipzig, Dec. 17. We have yet no Relation, in Form, of the Victory of the 5th; but by Letters of the 10th from the Prussian Camp before Breslau, the King expected to be soon Master of that City, and of the Garrison and Wounded which are in it, amounting together to 10,000 Men.

Letters of good Authority from the same Camp, of the 7th, 8th, and 10th Instant, bring the following Particulars: The King lay at Lissa the 5th, and advanced towards Breslau the 6th. Lieutenant General Ziethen was dispatched with the Dragoons, Hussars, and some Infantry, in Pursuit of the Enemy, who were retiring towards Schweidnitz; and he had such Success, that on the 10th there were in the Prussian Camp no less than 20,000 Prisoners, amongst which there are two Generals, and 183 Officers, many of them Field Officers.

Three Thousand Baggage and Ammunition Waggon were already brought in, and 168 Pieces of Cannon, and 43 Colours and Standards, taken. General Ziethen still continued the Pursuit, and sent in daily Prisoners and Artillery.

Some of the Letters mention, that General O'Donel is dangerously wounded, and a Prisoner, and that General Luchesi was killed; and so great was the Ardour of the Prussian Soldiers, that they could hardly be restrained from attempting to scale the Walls of Breslau.

Whitehall Treasury Chambers, Dec. 1, 1757.

WHEREAS adhering to the King's Enemies, by giving to them Aid or Comfort, either within his Realm, or elsewhere, is High Treason, and the Concealment thereof is Misprision of Treason;

And Whereas the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury have received Information, That a Loan of Money for that Purpose is at this Time negotiating in this Kingdom; Their Lordships do hereby promise a Reward of Two Hundred Pounds to any Person, by whose Discovery any Subject of His Majesty, or any Person residing within this Realm, shall be convicted of lending or advancing directly or indirectly, or of causing or procuring to be so lent or advanced, or of subscribing for, or contributing to, or of soliciting or contracting for or remitting, either in Coin or Bullion, or by Bill or Bills of Exchange, or by any other Means whatsoever, any Sum or Sums of Money, to or for the Use or Purpose aforesaid. The said Reward to be paid immediately on the Conviction of every such Offender, by the Solicitor of the Treasury, without Deduction, their Lordships having given Directions for the immediate Prosecution of such Offenders.

War Office, October 25, 1757.

It is His Majesty's Pleasure, that all Ensigns, who have not already joined their Corps, should immediately repair to the Head Quarters of their respective Regiments, where their Commissions will be delivered out to them, after being examined, and approved of, by the Colonel, or other Commanding Officer. Such as do not make their Appearance, with all possible Expedition, will be superseded, and other Officers appointed in their Room. If any Ensign lately appointed should be ignorant where his Regiment is quartered, he will be informed thereof, on writing to Thomas Tyrwhitt, Esq; Deputy Secretary at War.

By His Majesty's Command,
BARRINGTON.

Custom House, London, November 18, 1757.

Whereas on Tuesday the 8th Instant, in the Night, John Miles and William Dodd, Officers of the Customs, belonging to the Port of Arundell in Sussex, with four Dragoons, fell in with a large Gang of Smuglers, to the Number of Fifty or upwards, who were loading a great Number of Horses with Tea, and upon the Officers attempting to seize the same, a Signal was given by the Smuglers to a Cutter lying near the Shore, belonging to Selsey near Chichester, commanded by one Thomas Green, as represented by the Account transmitted to the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs, from which Cutter the said Tea was brought and landed, as there is great Reason to believe; And whereas thereupon a great Quantity of Fire Arms and other offensive Weapons, persons were brought from the Cutter to the Smuglers on the Shore, with which they (the Smuglers) fired upon the Officers and Dragoons, and shot one Thomas Cole, a Dragoon of the Iniskilling Regiment, commanded by the Honourable Lieutenant General Cholmondeley, who is since dead, and also dangerously wounded another Dragoon, and violently beat and abused one of the Officers of the Customs, and rescued from the Officers much the greatest Part of the said Tea. The Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs, in order to bring the Offenders to Justice, and the more effectually to put a Stop to such illegal, violent, and outrageous Proceedings, do hereby promise a Reward of One Hundred Pounds to any Person or Persons who shall apprehend the said Offenders, or any or either of them, so that they may be dealt with according to Law, to be paid by the Receiver General of His Majesty's Customs, on Conviction of each of the said Offenders.

And any of the Persons who were concerned in the Rescue of the Goods aforesaid, who shall, within three Months after such Offence, discover two or more of their Accomplices, so as they be convicted thereof, will be intitled to a Reward of Fifty Pounds; and every such Person so discovering, will be clearly acquitted and discharged of his Offence aforesaid, by the Act of the 9th of His present Majesty.

By Order of the said Commissioners,
William Wood, Secretary.

FRIDAY December 30, 1757.

Berlin, December 10.

An Authentick Relation of the March of the Prussian Corps, since the Battle of Weissenfels, out of Saxony, into Silesia, till after the Battle of Lissa, which the King gained, on the 5th of December 1757, over the Grand Austrian Army, commanded by Prince Charles of Lorrain, and Marshal Count Daun.

AFTER our Troops had pursued the Army of the Empire as far as Erfurth, and that of the French to Querfurth, it was resolved to march to the Relief of Schweidnitz, which was besieged by General Nadasti. The King set out from Leipzig on the 12th of November, with 19 Battalions, and 28 Squadrons. Whilst this Corps was marching towards Lusatia, Marshal Keith got into Bohemia through the Defile of Passberg. He took at Leutmeritz a considerable Magazine, which the Enemy had there, set Fire to the Bridge over the Elbe, and marched on towards Prague. We continued our March with great Diligence. Upon our coming to Grossen-Hayn, we received the disagreeable News of the Surrender of Schweidnitz. General Marschall was easily drove out of Lusatia; and the Corps which the King commanded, got, on the 24th, to Naumburg upon the Queifs. We heard there, that, on the 22d, there had been an Action between Marshal Daun, and the Prince of Bevern, which, it was said, had ended to our Advantage; but, the next Day, it was known, that Bevern's Army had been forced in its Intrenchments, and had retired to the other Side of the Oder; and, soon after, that the Town of Breslau had surrendered. We made forced Marches, and, on the 28th, got to Parchwitz near the Oder, where our Van-Guard surprized a Detachment of 1100 Austrians, 50 of which were killed, and 150 made Prisoners. The Prince of Bevern's Army had crossed the Oder at Glogau, and joined us the second of December. On the third the Troops rested, having been greatly fatigued with the toilsome Marches they had made. On the Fourth we marched to Neumarck, where we made 600 Prisoners, most of them Pandours or Hussars. We heard that Prince Charles had left Breslau with his Army, that he had advanced beyond Lissa, that his right Wing was covered by the Village of Niepern, and his Left by that of Golau, with the Rivulet of Schweidnitz in his Rear. The Army marched on the 5th very early in the Morning: Our Van-Guard met the Enemy's near the Village of Born, consisting of two Regiments of Hussars and the Saxon Dragoons; attacked them, drove them back to their own Camp, and took six Officers and about 500 Men Prisoners. As soon as our Army had got to the High Grounds, it was resolved to attack the Left of the Enemy. We extended ourselves to the Right as far as the Rivulet of Schweidnitz. The Attack began in a Wood, where the Enemy had posted some Infantry, and which however we soon forced. The Enemy, who found themselves turned, were obliged to change their Position. They had lost the Post that covered them, which put them under the Necessity of taking precipitately the first Posts that came in their Way, in order to prevent our raking their whole Army from one Wing to the other. They posted some Brigades of Foot on an Eminence that lay behind the Wood, which was attacked by our Right; and carried after an obstinate Resistance. The Enemy formed a new Line near the Village of Leuten, where they defended themselves with great Bravery, but where we forced them. Then the Cavalry of our Right charged that of the Enemy, and beat them, but were checked by the Enemy's Cannon firing upon them with Cartridge Shot. Our Cavalry, however, recovered themselves presently, fell upon the Enemy's Infantry, and made a great Number of Prisoners. During these different Attacks, the Right of the Austrian Cavalry and Infantry came up; our Left of Cavalry charged that of the Enemy, and broke them; after which the Regiment of Bareut took the Austrian Infantry, which was posted on an Eminence, in the Rear, at the same Time that the Left of our Infantry attacked them in Front. The Whole of this Corps of the Enemy was entirely broke, and the King pursued them as far as Lissa. The Action began at One o'Clock in the Afternoon, and ended at Four. If Day-light had lasted another Hour, their Defeat would still have been greater.

On the 6th we pursued the Imperialists as far as Breslau.

The 7th we invested the Town, and all the necessary Dispositions have been made to besiege it. The same Day General Ziethen was detached with a large Body of Cavalry and Infantry in Pursuit of the Enemy. He soon after took above 3000 Waggons of their Baggage and Provision, some Cannon, and a prodigious Number of Prisoners. He is still at their Heels. The Austrians are marching towards Glogau, without it's being yet possible to know whether they are taking the Road to Schweidnitz or to Moravia. We have taken in this Battle 291 Officers, amongst whom are the Lieutenant-Generals Odonel and Nostitz, the Colonel Count Brown and others, of which a List will be given as soon as Time permits. The Number of Prisoners taken in the Battle, and in the Pursuit, amounts to Twenty Thousand five Hundred Men. We have besides taken Pieces of Cannon, 51 Colours and Standards, and 400 Waggons of Ammunition and Baggage. We reckon on our Side 500 killed, and 2300 wounded. We have not lost any General except Major General Krokow of the Dragoons, who was wounded and taken, when our Cavalry were first repulsed. The Officers and even the common Soldiers have behaved to Admiration in this Battle.

Head Quarters at Suderburg, December 19.

On the 6th the Army crossed the Lopaw River in four Columns, and encamped the Right to Wite Water, the Left to Melting in the Front of the Left; Head Quarters at Epsdorf: The advanced Corps, under Count von Lemberg's Command, was to have advanced to Ulzen, but the Intelligence of the Enemy's March had been confirmed, and the Prince going forward to Epsdorf, ordered the Corps to join the Army, and detached Major Lukener towards Hermansburg, where he took 24 Waggons, which the French had brought with them from the Pays de Lorraine, mostly loaded.

Major of Brigade, Epsdorf, took Possession of a considerable Magazine at Medingen that the Enemy abandoned, consisting of 100000 Rations of Hay of 15 Pounds each, and 60000 Rations of Oats, with a large Quantity of Wheat, Rye and Straw, and likewise some small Magazines at Bunenbutel, Bibesen and Ultzen. The 7th the Army halted, and sent for Forage to Medingen. The 8th the Army halted; we got Bread from Lunenburg. The 9th the Army marched in four Columns and crossed the Elbe River, encamped with the Right to Harau, the Left to a Rivulet called Swinau, with the Village of Glogau, being the Head Quarters, in the Rear of the Army. The 10th the Army halted, Lieutenant General Schmettau with Major Generals Bronck, Prince of Hsenburg and Urff, under his Command, with eight Battalions of Foot and 10 Squadrons towards Giffheim, and the Army marched tomorrow. Major Lukener attacked a Corps of the Enemy yesterday at Hermansburg, which retreated, and took eleven Prisoners.

In the Action which happened on the 4th, the Enemy had three Officers taken Prisoners, a Captain, Lieutenant and Cornet. The Captain is the Chevalier de B...
